

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR BASKETBALL

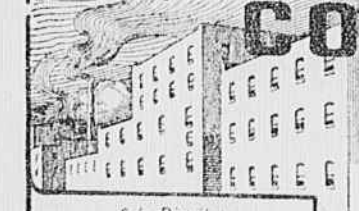

Schedule of Randolph-Macon College Announced by Manager.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Asheville, Va., November 19.—The prospects for basketball at Randolph-Macon College are better than they have ever been before. The gymnasium has been remodeled, and the floor is now regulation size. The track is large enough for about 300 spectators, and this should add greatly to the interest and spirit of the game. Besides the five-lettered men back, there is some good looking new material, and the old men will have to hustle to hold their places. The old men that are back are Hopkins, Walker, Millican, J. H. Woodhouse, and Jordan, and all did brilliant work for the Lemon and Black last season.
Among the new material C. Woodhouse and Brown have shown up best. They both are fast and experienced players. Jordan has been elected captain. Manager Millican has arranged a good schedule, including several trips which will take two days each, and several teams will be played while the Yellow Jackets have not met before in this branch of athletics. The following is the schedule:
December 8—Fredericks College, at Ashland.
January 12—Richmond Y. M. C. A., at Richmond.
January 20—Open.
January 27—Wake Forest College, at Wake Forest, N. C.
February 3—William and Mary College, at Williamsburg.
February 8—Wake Forest College, at Ashland.
February 9—Hamden-Sidney College, at Farmville.
February 10—Lynchburg Y. M. C. A., at Lynchburg.
February 11—Randolph-Macon Academy, at Bedford.
February 15—William and Mary, at Ashland.
February 17—Fredericks College, at Fredericksburg.
February 19—Catholic University, at Washington, D. C.
February 22—Hamden-Sidney, at Ashland.

AGED COUPLE RELEASED AFTER TWO YEARS IN JAIL

Bristol, Va., November 19.—John Carleton and his wife, each about sixty years of age, and emaciated from long confinement in prison, have returned here after having spent two years in the county jails of Sullivan and Knox counties, Tenn. Carleton and his wife were convicted along with their young son, Rupert Carleton, of the murder of their son-in-law, Arthur Howard, a young business man here. The trio was locked up following the tragedy, and on being given a hearing nearly a year later, all were convicted and sentenced to fifteen years in the State penitentiary. As the result of an appeal to the Supreme Court, the older Carletons were declared not guilty by the Supreme Court and were released from custody, while their son was remanded for a new trial. It has never been disputed that the fatal shot was fired by Rupert Carleton, and that it followed frequent family quarrels. Howard, it was proven, and at different times abused and threatened the older Carletons. John Carleton and his wife, now penniless, are searching out their friends here with the hope of getting bond for their boy. They were unable to secure the amount when the boy was brought here from Knoxville Friday, and he was accordingly sent to the county jail at Blountville. A little girl of this family, left alone when the others were sent to prison, has found a home with other people.
Looking to the arrangements for a survey through Southwest Virginia counties, with a view to interesting each county in the construction of its portion of the proposed Bristol to Washington highway, President W. H. Aston, of the Highway Association, is appearing before the supervisors of the several counties. This step is being taken in advance of probable legislative action. It is the purpose of the association to have a bill drafted for submission to the next General Assembly, with a view to getting permission for the counties along the route to vote bonds for the building of such a road.

HONORS OF "BIG FOUR" WON BY PRINCETON

Princeton has won the championship of the so-called "big four" in the East.
The Army and Navy eleven, both unbeaten, remain to clash for supremacy at Philadelphia Saturday.
Harvard and Yale, though still among top-notchers, must settle their ancient rivalry this week-end, each with the sting of two defeats.
Pennsylvania four times beaten, has lost much support as a favorite in its annual clash with Cornell.
Dartmouth has ended its season, defeated by Princeton and Harvard in such close contests that it may easily lay claim to a place among the leaders.
Carleton Indians, too, remain a strong eleven and favorites for the more games on their schedule—Brown and Johns Hopkins—none the less, realizing that their progress was marred by defeat by Syracuse.
The intercollegiate championship is an undefined honor, as the defeat of

FEDERATION NOW READY FOR WORK

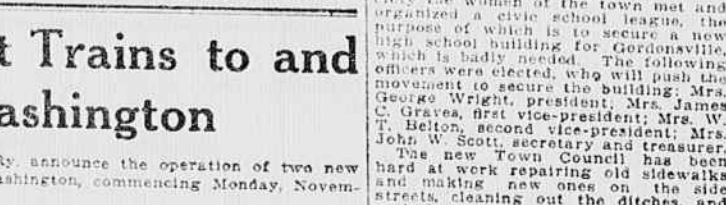

Several of Most Important Committees Will Make Reports To-Day.
Atlanta, Ga., November 19.—Beginning to-morrow, the Federation of Labor will get down to the real work of the thirtieth annual convention in session in this city. Several of the more important committees are ready to report to the convention at the Monday session, and it is almost a certainty that a warm fight will be precipitated and last throughout the week.
One of the first jurisdictional contests to come before the federation will be the labor workers' fight of several years standing. The fact, which claims about 50 per cent. of the electrical workers of the country, is fighting against the recognition by the convention of the McNulty faction. It is declared the Socialist delegates, several of whom are included in the Reid delegation, will take advantage of this opportunity starting their fight against Gompers and the present regime, on the floor of the convention.
The request of the California delegation for an appropriation of $50,000 for the McNulty brothers' defense, and the resolution calling upon Mr. Gompers and other labor officials to sever their connection with the National Civic Federation, also are expected to be reported upon to-morrow.
Another matter to come before the federation will be presented in a speech by Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union, who will urge a closer affiliation between the labor organizations of the country and the farmers.
The activity of the visiting delegates to-day was confined to a religious meeting this afternoon, at which Ex-Governor Hoke Smith presided. Addresses were made by several of the labor leaders and ministers of the city.

SOUTHPORT TO CELEBRATE

Opening of New Railroad Will Be Memorable Occasion.
Wilmington, N. C., November 19.—For the first time in its history the town of Southport, about twenty-five miles below Wilmington, and generally termed at the mouth of the Cape Fear River, will come into the realization of railroad service Thursday of this week. Then the first train will be a survey through Southwest Virginia counties, with a view to interesting each county in the construction of its portion of the proposed Bristol to Washington highway, President W. CONFERENCE WILL MEET AT KINSTON

Seventy-sixth Session of North Carolina Methodists Will Convene on Tuesday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Kinston, N. C., November 19.—During the present week the North Carolina annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will hold its seventy-sixth session in Kinston. The Conference Historical Society will meet on Tuesday evening, at which time the annual address will be delivered and the officers for the ensuing year will be elected.
The conference will convene in the First Methodist Church Wednesday morning, with Bishop Embrey E. Hoss presiding. It is probable the conference will close with the morning session on Monday of next week.
One of the first items of business to be transacted by the conference will be the election of a secretary as successor to Rev. W. L. Cunningham, who had filled this place with great efficiency and faithfulness for nineteen consecutive sessions of the conference, and who died a few weeks after the annual session held in Elizabeth City last year.
Kinston is one of the leading pastoral centers in the Newbern District; Rev. R. F. Bumpass, D. D., is presiding elder of this district, and Rev. F. S. Love is pastor of the Kinston church. Only once before has the conference been held in Kinston—in 1896. This town will extend to the preachers and laymen who constitute the membership of the conference, and to a large number of visitors, the large-hearted hospitality for which Eastern North Carolina is well known.
Several of the confessional officers of the church are expected to be present to address the conference on the subject of the various interests of the church, which they represent.
The North Carolina Conference embraces in its territory all of that part of the State known as Eastern North Carolina. This conference is one of the oldest in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. It was organized in February, 1837, being set off from the Virginia conference; other territory added in 1850, and in 1876, North Carolina territory which was then transferred to this conference. In 1890, North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, was transferred beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and in that year this conference was divided and the Western North Carolina Conference was formed, so that now these two conferences embrace all of the State of North Carolina, the little North Carolina territory having been transferred to this conference in 1894.
The first session of the North Carolina Conference was held in Greensboro, in January, 1838. The first statistics regarding the membership of the conference, embraced in the conference, were published in 1840, and at that time the membership included 16,095 white people, and 4,349 colored people. The figures published in 1910 show the church membership to be 75,187, an increase of 2,614 over the membership the year before.
Last year the North Carolina Conference contributed to the salaries of presiding elders, $11,528.23; the salaries of preachers in charge, $151,315.14; to the support of bishops, $2,762.60; to the fund for conference claimants, $7,629.30; to foreign missions, $18,877.71; to church extension, $17,476.97; to education, $10,253.25; to the Methodist Orphanage, $18,073.21; to the American Bible Society, $7,572.20; to the superannuated endowment fund, $26,707. total for all objects, including several minor contributions not given here, $141,495.18.
There are 158 pastoral charges in the conference, and the territory of the conference is divided into nine districts. The number of preachers in the conference is about 175, and several pastoral charges are supplied by local preachers.
Only one presiding elder and nine preachers in charge will be required to be appointed to other pastoral charges than those they now serve at this session of the conference, on account of the four years' "time limit," but a number of other changes will be made in the appointments.
The Methodist Orphanage, which is located in Raleigh, and which is directed under the superintendency of Rev. John N. Cole, D. D., is giving

Once in a century it is possible to produce such a work as Dante's "Inferno" in moving pictures. It has cost hundreds of thousands of dollars, and the co-operation of famous artists and more than two years of time to accomplish this result. The five reels, showing fully the scenes and making more than a two hours' entertainment, will be shown at the Academy this week, with special music and explanatory lecture. The educational and literary value of the reels has been specially recommended by the University of Sorbonne, in France. There will be a matinee each day at 3 o'clock, and the evening performances will commence at 8:30 o'clock.

Grand Opera in English.

An entire special train load of artists, a huge chorus, an orchestra of fifty musicians, three world-famed conductors, and a scenic equipment seldom attempted on any stage is what Mr. Savage promises to bring to this city when his production in English of Puccini's "The Girl of the Golden West" is shown at the Academy next Monday, November 27.
The magnitude of this undertaking is even greater than what this same producer attempted in his presentation in English of "Parisian" and "Madam Butterfly." Five sets of principals are carried with the company, so that there can be no possibility of a performance being canceled at any time. "The Girl of the Golden West" was ranked as the real American opera. David Belasco's stage is distinctly American, and all of the people and scenes surrounding the story and presentation are typically representative of our people in the days of 42. The seats will be placed on sale to-day at 9 A. M.

protection, training and education to about 200 orphan children, and the orphanage is an object that is especially close to the heart of the conference, and it is one to which the conference gives liberal support.
Announcement will doubtless be made early in the conference session that for the present at least there will be no consolidation of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, the organ of the North Carolina Conference, with that of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, the latter being the organ of the Western North Carolina Conference. The opinion has existed for some years among quite a number of members of both conferences that a joint organ would be better for the two bodies than a separate organ for each. Last year a commission was appointed by both conferences to consider this matter; the commissions were given power to make for the conference, but after meeting and thorough conference regarding the advisability of the consolidation of the two papers, the consolidation was deemed to be not advisable. This report was made to the Western North Carolina Conference at its recent meeting in Statesville, and the same will be made to the North Carolina Conference.

The establishment of such an institution here was brought about on account of the fact that the number of youthful offenders who have been before the police judge within the past few months has increased considerably, and as the State reformatory is crowded, there has been no place for the confinement of the youngsters who are brought into the Court. It is planned to make the reformatory self-supporting after the first few years. An instructor, a station and men competent to teach the boys in domestic trades will constitute the faculty. The tract of land includes about 100 acres, and will be developed as a farm.
The large number of automobile accidents here within the past few months has resulted in the introduction of an ordinance at the City Council's meeting providing for a board of examiners, before which all prospective drivers of motor cars shall appear for examination. The ordinance has been passed, and second readings, and will doubtless become a law at the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen Friday night.
A number of Asheville business men are at St. Louis in consultation with Dr. E. W. Grove, of that city, who has been here to see Asheville, and who desires that the bank of the city take $100,000 worth of stock in a tourist hotel which he contemplates building at the summit of Sunset Mountain, which will be connected to Asheville with an inclined railroad similar to the one at Chattanooga, Tenn.

WOMEN READY TO BUILD MONUMENT

Money Has Been Raised and Contract Will Be Let Soon.
West Point, Va., November 19.—Mrs. Margaret B. Jones and Mrs. William Haynes, of King and Queen counties, came down on the steamer Louise yesterday to meet a committee of several firms that make monuments, to confer with them about the erection of the King and Queen monument to the memory of Confederate veterans of that county. The monument will be erected at King and Queen Courthouse. King and Queen women have done good work, and have the requisite amount that they started out to raise. Now that the time has come to let the contract it has been suggested that a few hundred more dollars will give a better monument, and there the matter rests for further consideration.
The Woman's Auxiliary of Ware and Abingdon churches, in Gloucester county, have been pleased to honor the birthday of Captain John S. Tompkins, by remembering her birthday in a very substantial way. The chapter named for her filled a box of good things to eat and sent it to the Confederate Woman's Home, in Richmond, so that she might enjoy the good things with her comrades.
H. W. H. Wilcox, member of the House of Delegates from King and Queen counties, has had great success in raising turkeys at Chelsea, just above West Point. Some that were shown weighed about eight pounds apiece.
At the place of Joseph Ryland, at Locust Cottage, in King and Queen, during the late summer months and early fall, a flock of wild turkeys came out of the woods and fed with his tame turkeys. He encouraged them to be sociable, and recently he was successful in entrapping one of them in a large wire net and found ready sale for them at $2.50 apiece.
In lower King and Queen county, a few days ago, Manly Carter, son of John Carter, who lives near Church View, was shot by his companion, Bob Carter, who was concealed in the bushes, called out, and was mistaken for one by Mr. Carter. The wound, though very painful, is not serious.
An entertainment was given in the home of H. S. Bland Friday night in honor of Miss Mary Minor Diggs, daughter of Isaac Diggs, of Richmond.
Dr. Claybrook Fauntleroy is in Richmond with his mother, Mrs. Fannie Fauntleroy, who is very ill.
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Evans, Mrs. Robert McCandlish and daughter, Miss Nannie, have returned to their homes. Nannie, who has been here to attend the marriage of Mr. Shields McCandlish to Miss Mary Donnell.
Willie Calvin Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Morris, of West Point, died on Friday in his home in West Point, of Bright's disease. He was fourteen years of age, and had been in bad health for some time. His remains were buried at Liberty Baptist Church to-day. The cortege will leave West Point at a very early hour.
A son of Mrs. Buch died at his parents home, just out of the town limits, of meningitis yesterday, after a few days' illness.
The Boy Scouts of West Point had their first scouting trip last week. They went as far as Euclid Heights, passed their examination, and thirty strong, were enrolled as tenderfoots. They are now considering ways and means for the purchase of uniforms and equipment for the organization.
The first of the proposed series of Cinderella dances, to be given by the young people of West Point, was held Thursday evening at the Masonic Hall auditorium. Those appearing were Mrs. William Gregory Brooks, Mrs. Morgan Treat, Mrs. Crosby Thompson and Mrs. Daniel Clifton.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Newbill, of Essex county, have issued cards announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Ethel, to Chas. Broadus, of Bowling Green, Va., which will be solemnized on Wednesday, November 29, at noon at Leominster Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Essex county.
Charles K. Parker, Waterview, and Miss Helen Percifull, daughter of E. C. Percifull, called at the Baptist parsonage at Church View on Tuesday afternoon and were married, much to the surprise of their friends.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Meheerrin, Va., November 19.—With the unlucky number of thirteen knights contesting for first honors, whereby the couple crown the queen of love and beauty the first tournament in this county was given at Waldo, near here on Friday afternoon. W. E. Bradshaw, of Cumberland, won first honors; C. T. Redd, second; W. C. Owen, third, and W. H. Holt, fourth. Other knights were Mr. A. Harper, S. E. Dance, Grover Grim, T. U. "The Cedars" where the ball was held, was decorated and prepared for the occasion, and a large crowd assembled to witness the coronation address and to participate in the festivities. W. H. Wall, who had only a few hours previous charged the knights, in a short address delivered the crowns, after which the band started up, and those who had honored, with their queen and maids of honor, danced the royal set. The entire assemblage then took part in the amusement was continued into the morning.
S. E. Dance and C. T. Redd were the promoters of the affair. A vast crowd from the three adjoining counties participated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Amherst, Va., November 19.—The farmers of the county and every one else interested in improved methods of tilling the soil are very enthusiastic over the State Farmers' Institute, which is to be held at Amherst next Thursday, November 23, beginning at 10 o'clock. WILL REPRESENT NORTHERN NECK

Teachers Going to Norfolk to Take Part in State Conference.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lancaster, Va., November 19.—The Lancaster Teachers' Association will be well represented in the State Association which is to meet in Norfolk next week, provided transportation can be secured. There is only one steamer a week between Norfolk and the Northern Neck, and that goes down Saturday night and returns on Monday. Traveling in the bay at this season of the year in gasolene launches is not only uncomfortable and dangerous, but also very expensive. The Lancaster Association now includes every white teacher in the county, a record of which but few counties in the State can boast. Frank P. Brent, of Lancaster, has been appointed by Professor Thomas Fitzhugh, of the University of Virginia, to read a paper on the "Classical Element in the Poetry of Tennyson" before that department of the State Association, composed of the teachers of the Latin and Greek languages.
Representatives of a powder company have for the past two or three weeks been making experiments with dynamite in blowing up stumps, making ditches and loosening hard land for the purpose of subsoiling. These demonstrations, which were attended by large crowds of farmers, are said to have been very successful. Stumps were blown up, but also broken to pieces, as they had not been burnt or removed; ditches several feet deep were formed, and hard earth was loosened to the depth of three feet for subsoiling. It is probable that dynamite will be extensively used hereafter in this region for the purpose mentioned.
John L. Williams, the well known Richmond banker, who some time ago presented to the county of Northumberland, a fine bust of Chief Justice Marshall, has presented through Judge T. R. H. Wright, a copy of the Bible in every edition, about four million copies, which they supplemented, were either nearly worn out or else were too greasy and unclear to be used.
During the past week Judge Wright has been holding a special term of the Circuit Court of Northumberland to hear for the fifth time the suit of Smith & Marsh against the Northern Neck Insurance Company. Three of the trials resulted in hung juries, and one was taken to the Court of Appeals, which reversed the decision of the jury, and remanded the case for retrial.
George W. Pitts, a well known citizen of this section, died at his home in West Chester, on Friday morning, aged about fifty-five years. Several years ago he suffered a severe stroke of paralysis, from which he never recovered. Thursday morning he rode up to Heavensville to attend a special term of the Circuit Court, and on his return, when he reached his home, he suffered another stroke, which rendered him helpless. He was taken home by some of his neighbors, and died about twelve hours later. He was a widow and four small children.
